DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-6 and 11-16 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by US 6,663,585 to Ender. Ender discloses a blood treatment machine with an arterial blood line 5 connected to a dialysis blood chamber 3, and a venous blood line that leads from the chamber 3 back to the patient. Both blood lines terminate in needles 5a, 7a, and the system comprises a bubble separating device 8. The system comprises a device 17 for monitoring vascular access including a voltage generator 32, electric connector lines 19, and a field coil 18 that generates a potential difference in the venous branch of the device. A measurement amplifier 22 detects the voltage difference between the field coil 18 and the induction coil 20, and uses comparator 23 to compare the measured voltage to a predetermined reference voltage. The control unit may then generate a control signal.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 7-9 and 17-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over US 6,663,585 to Ender. Ender discloses the apparatus as claimed with the exception of the varied locations of the voltage inducer and detector. Absent a showing of criticality of the locations of the coils, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of invention to move the coils into the locations claimed by applicant since it has been held that rearranging parts of an invention involves only routine skill in the art. See MPEP 2144.04

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure:

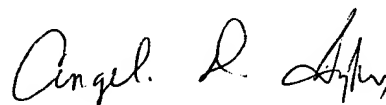

- a. US 5,685,989 Kritiviski et al
 - i. Using electrical current to monitor dialysis access
- b. US 5,644,240 Brugger et al
 - ii. Differential conductivity dialysis monitor
- c. US 5,510,717 Buffaloe et al
 - iii. Voltage to monitor dialysis
